WANTED POSTER ASSIGNMENT

In the decade since the end of the French and Indian War in 1763, Britain had strengthened its direct control of the American colonies. A succession of new taxes, restrictions on west-ward expansion, and less colonial autonomy in government angered colonial leaders. The increased British military presence in the colonies did nothing to reduce tensions. Relations between Britain and its colonies was at an all-time low. The British viewed the American colonials as ungrateful, worthless traitors while colonists looked at the British with disdain and saw them as pompous, arrogant, money-grubbing meddlers.

Your task:

Create a wanted poster representing either the British Side or American Colonial Side. You poster should follow the format of a standard wanted poster and should be seeking the help of others sympathetic to your view, to aid you is hunting down and capturing one of the individuals who represent "the other side". Your wanted poster MUST include the following information (some info may be fabricated for the purpose of the assignment, but the bulk must be rooted in fact):

- 1) Picture/Graphic Image
- 2) Full Name + any Aliases
- Biographical Info (date of birth, position/job, place of birth)
- 4) Physical description (height, weight, eye/hair colour, identifying marks, clothing, etc)
- 5) Wanted for (stick to the facts!) *For this section, list what the individual has done to cause his pursuers to want him Dead or Alive...
- 6) Who is looking for him/her
- 7) Last Seen
- 8) Reward

Below are some individuals who each side may want captured? Consult your Who's Who list for more ideas...You are not limited to these individuals as they are merely suggestions:

Who the British might want Dead or	Who the American Colonial's might want
Alive	Dead or Alive
Samuel Adams, John Hancock, Benjamin	Thomas Hutchinson, King George III, Charles
Franklin, Crispus Attucks, Paul Revere,	Townshend, George Grenville, Benedict
George Washington, John Locke, Patrick	Arnold, Thomas Gage, John Pitcairn, William
Henry, Joseph Galloway, Thomas Jefferson,	Howe, John Burgoyne, Barry St.Leger,
Thomas Paine, John Dickinson, etc	George Cornwallis, etc

Your Wanted Poster will be evaluated on both content and aesthetic appeal. Feel free to be creative in order to present an authentic look to your project.
