Calendar Checklist

The following checklist is an ideal timetable. Couples who do not have as much time as shown should plan their wedding in much the same order, using the checklist as a guide. Be sure to check things off as they are completed.

immediately after the engagement:

- ☐ Discuss a budget and the size and style of the wedding with parents. Decide who pays for what.
- ☐ Choose a wedding date and time. You may want to check vendor availability prior to setting date.
- ☐ Create a binder to organize your thoughts, photos, worksheets, etc.
- ☐ If using a wedding consultant, enlist their services.
- ☐ Make initial contact with vendors and obtain references.
- ☐ Meet with clergy member; schedule pre-marital counseling.
- ☐ Reserve wedding and reception sites; make initial catering contacts.
- ☐ Register at local bridal registries.
- ☐ Hire photographer.
- ☐ Hire videographer.
- ☐ Make arrangements for the music at the wedding and reception.
- ☐ Make all transportation arrangements to and from the wedding and the reception. Consider hiring a limousine, party bus, trolley or horse-drawn carriage.

six months or more before:

- ☐ Compile the guest list.
- ☐ Send out Save the Date cards.
- ☐ Reserve a block of hotel rooms for out-of-town guests.
- ☐ Choose wedding rings.
- ☐ Send engagement announcement to newspapers.
- ☐ Select and order wedding gown, leaving ample time for delivery and alterations.
- ☐ Look for alteration specialist (if someone other than bridal shop).
- ☐ Select the attendants (bridesmaids and groomsmen). Choose and order bridesmaids dresses.
- ☐ Purchase invitations.
- ☐ Select one usher for every 50 guests.
- ☐ Schedule wedding cake design appointment. Get estimates. Book the date.
- ☐ Implement diet and exercise program.
- ☐ Plan beauty preparations by checking with your salon for how far in advance they book wedding parties.
- ☐ Complete all honeymoon plans. If traveling outside the country, check on visas, passports and inoculations.
- ☐ Sign up for dance lessons. Talk to instructor about choreographing a special dance routine to "wow" guests.
- ☐ Book vendors, securing dates by putting down deposit.

four months or more before:

- ☐ Confirm final details with the caterer.
- ☐ Order napkins and purchase any other items needed for the ceremony and reception. Check with the caterer to see what he/she includes.
- ☐ Order invitations (25 extra) and personal stationery or "Thank You" notes.
- ☐ Book engagement photo session with enough time to submit photos to local newspapers.
- ☐ Visit the photographer again to discuss specifics. Use the "Photography Worksheet."
- ☐ Get estimates and order flowers and floral arrangements for wedding and reception.
- ☐ Get estimates and order balloons, decorations and favors for wedding and reception.
- ☐ Book room for wedding night.

three months or more before:

- ☐ Order wedding rings. Allow time for any final engraving.
- ☐ Order tuxedos for the groomsmen and fathers.

two months or more before:

- ☐ Mail invitations (six weeks before the wedding; eight weeks to out-of-town guests).
- ☐ Buy a wedding gift for future spouse and gifts for attendants and helpers.
- ☐ Finalize arrangements of accommodations for out-of-town attendants and guests.

one month or more before:

- ☐ Ready all accessories, shoes and lingerie for bridal gown.
- ☐ Have beauty consultant do a trial run with bride's hair and makeup. Schedule this appointment on the day the bridal portrait is taken and/or a party is planned or schedule on the day of your final dress fitting to see exactly how you will look on wedding day.
- ☐ Have final fitting for bridal gown and bridesmaids' dresses.
- ☐ Have bridal portrait taken.
- ☐ Have groomsmen registered and measured at the formal wear store.
- ☐ Check with the newspapers on wedding announcement requirements.
- ☐ Finalize plans for rehearsal dinner.
- ☐ Plan seating arrangements for the rehearsal dinner and reception.
- ☐ Review this checklist to be sure nothing has been missed.
- ☐ Complete change-of-address information for post-office.
- ☐ Keep current with "Thank You" notes for shower and early wedding gifts.

two weeks before:

- ☐ Get the marriage license. Be sure to bring all needed documents.
- ☐ Inform or send rehearsal invitations including exact time and location to those who will attend the rehearsal and rehearsal dinner.
- ☐ Inquire about where bride, groom and attendants will dress for the ceremony.
- ☐ Review all details. Walk through the entire event considering things like parking, access for handicapped guests, etc.
- ☐ Confirm all transportation plans.
- ☐ Check in with caterer, photographer, videographer, musicians, DJ, florist, etc. to confirm all arrangements.
- ☐ "Break in" wedding shoes at home.

one week before:

- ☐ Appoint someone to act as an "organizer" to handle any last minute problems.
- ☐ Give a final guest count to the caterer.
- ☐ Review final details for those in the wedding party.
- ☐ Confirm honeymoon arrangements.
- ☐ Pack for the honeymoon.
- ☐ Enjoy a day with family and friends. Visit a day spa, have a massage, a facial and relax.

one day before:

- ☐ Attend the rehearsal and rehearsal dinner and give gifts to attendants.
 - ☐ Give the rings and clergy's fee to the best man.
- ☐ Organize gown, accessories, etc. to go to ceremony.
 - ☐ Get a manicure and pedicure.

on the wedding day:

- ☐ Mail wedding announcements.
- ☐ Get hair, makeup, etc. done.
 - ☐ Enjoy the day!

Invitation • Announcement Wording Worksheet

Be sure all details (date, time, place) are secured before ordering invitations.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are approximately 20 lines visible. The paper has a slight shadow on the right side, suggesting it's resting on a surface.

Gift Registry

The gift registry is the perfect opportunity for the bride and groom to set-up their household. It is wise for the couple to do this "wish-list" shopping trip together to be sure they choose items and styles both desire. Of course, they should keep in mind they probably won't receive everything they want, but it is a good way to get started.

Traditionally when people think of registries, they think of items like fine china, flatware and crystal. While some couples may shy away from the idea, many couples are discovering the incredible array of choices available, everything from fancy to contemporary or everyday casual. Today long-standing manufacturers have included lines that are dishwasher and microwave safe making china an ideal choice for everyday use. The registry is also the perfect time to begin the couples china, flatware or crystal collection, since these items, though desired, are often not purchased by the newlyweds themselves.

Other items to consider registering for include general housewares, linens and even electronics or sporting goods, depending on the couples interests and activities.

The following worksheets can be used to provide ideas of items to register for and to organize plans for the gift list. Once completed, a call to set an appointment with the store's registry department is recommended. Then take these forms to the stores of choice and enjoy "shopping!"

Transportation Tips

Make sure the company you use is reputable, reliable and properly licensed and insured.
Do they have more than one vehicle in case of a breakdown?
Most transportation companies charge by the hour. You may need to provide an itinerary or at least have one in mind.
Think carefully about your scheduling time, you don't want to pay for a vehicle to sit idle while your pictures are being taken.
Don't forget to tip your driver.

Marriage

After Every Wedding Comes a Marriage

by Florence Littauer

If any of us thought we were going to get divorced, we would not bother to get married. If we didn't plan on a long-range relationship, we wouldn't invest money in homes, furniture, dishes, crystal and silver. Yet statistics show that 50% of those getting married will end up divorced, suffering through the separation of themselves, their children and their possessions. Why does this happen and how can you prevent a similar fate in your marriage?

In the 20 years that Fred and I have been counseling people with marriage problems, we have developed some principles that may make a major change in your perspective.

We fall in love with opposite personalities. Although we seek companionship and compatibility, we usually choose to marry someone who is nothing like us.

We subconsciously select a person who fills in our weak areas, and when we do, the two of us fit together and become one. The one who loves to talk marries one who likes to listen. The one who likes to lead marries one who is willing to follow. Optimists marry pessimists, extroverts marry introverts.

We focus on our mates weaknesses. Once we come home from the honeymoon we begin to notice faults in the other person. She doesn't keep the house in perfect order or cook like mother. He's constantly giving instructions and isn't loving like father. We find that marriage isn't what we thought it would be, and that we don't agree on much of anything.

We decide to make our partner over. Once we realize we've married a person with totally different standards and opinions, we begin to remake our mate in our image. If only we could turn the person we have into what we'd like him to be, we could be happy. We want the fun-loving one to get serious and organized, the deep thoughtful one to lighten up, the aggressive worker to slow down, and the easy going one to speed up. We set about to change what we have into a new model.

We get discouraged. When we discover that our mate is resistant to change and doesn't get excited over our "partner-improvement program," we get discouraged and wonder if perhaps we've married the wrong person.

We need help. Fred and I, without knowing what we were doing, fell into this negative pattern. We thought being in love was enough and we spent no time looking ahead to possible problems. We had such a fantastic wedding that it was featured in LIFE, May 18, 1953, but neither of us realized that after every wedding comes a marriage. When we got home from the honeymoon Fred announced, "Now I'm going to put you on your training program." I was shocked to find that he didn't like me as I was but only as he hoped I might become. He showed me that I didn't walk or talk right and that I didn't even preheat the dinner plates. He tried to make me over. I resisted the transformation, and we both became discouraged.

After 15 years of a declining marriage, we discovered the concept of the “4 Basic Temperaments,” and for the first time, had a tool to use in examining ourselves and accepting each other. We found help.

We can appreciate each others differences. Once I saw that I had been created as a Sanguine, an outgoing, fun-loving optimist, and that Fred was born a Melancholy, a deep, thoughtful, introspective introvert, I could understand that we had been attracted to each other's opposite strengths and discouraged by each others opposite weaknesses. Once we found out that we were naturally different and that one of us wasn't out to get the other, we began to accept each other as we were.

We can become one. Look over the following chart together and check off what characterizes you. Discuss your differences before getting married and realize that there is no perfect person. With every set of strengths come accompanying weaknesses, but when you two focus on your assets, you will fill each other's empty spaces.

SANGUINE: The Popular Person, The Born-entertainer, Likes parties, people and fun, Loves to talk, Wants to create excitement, Entertains everyone, Gets prize for best personality, Needs attention and approval, Has little organization or follow through, Gets Depressed when life's not fun, Controls by charm.

CHOLERIC: The Powerful Person, The Born-leader, Likes action and progress, Loves to work, Wants to motivate others, Directs everyone, Gets prize for most accomplishments, Needs obedience and appreciation, Has little tolerance for incompetence, Gets depressed when losing control, Controls by force.

Discovering your personality type can be an enlightening experience and an excellent way to improve marriage communication. Based on the knowledge of your spouse's strengths and weaknesses, your communication will become more meaningful, your understanding and acceptance of your spouse more complete. The following test will help you establish which temperament you are, sanguine, phlegmatic, melancholy, or choleric, as well as point out the characteristics of each type.

The following charts are created by Fred Littauer.

Personality Profile

DIRECTIONS: In each of the following rows of four words across, place an X in front of the one word that most often applies to you. Continue through all forty lines. Be sure each number is marked. If you are not sure of which word "most applies", ask your fiancé, spouse or friend. Now transfer all your X's to the corresponding words on the following page and add up your totals. Then visit weddingplanner-andguide.com to discover the personality strengths and weaknesses of you and your spouse.
